The members of the Legislature which meets here next week, are beginning to appear already in considerable numbers. These sessions do not create the enthusiasm now they once did. Indianapolis then was only a country town. Now she is a great city and the people have seen the sights since then, hence they are not so exercised at the approach of the Legislature session.

An important consideration with these lawmakers is the matter of board. We know of some who have had their boarding honses selected and engaged for months. It is all important that they should be fed with an excellent stiet and tenderly cared for, since a bad dinner or a poor night's rest might occasion the concep- such traffic tion of a bad law, whose passage would operate great injury to the State. INTERESTING TO THE PUBLIC.

THE subscriber, formerly Broadway Hatter, and for more than twenty years associated with the by the liberal patronage of an appreciating public, has, in the spirit and pride of honorable competition against Eastern productions in his art, resolved upon a renewed and more efficient effort to produce a home-made fashionable head dress which shall be strictly in keeping with the progressive age we live in.

This season he has introduced, in addition to the Gents' and Young Gents' Fall Styles of Fashionable Hats, all The President will issue a proclamation declaring the restoration of peace before the meeting of Congress.

No. 11—Ladies' Silk Hat, Fall styles for 1865.

His standard styles are rare productions of intellect and skill, ingeniously blending all the nice points of the several styles (technically) in original styles, unique and so faultless in combination that by the mere width and haping of the brim, with suitable curl, will make them suit the fancy of the most fastidious gentleman, or the judicious taste of the plain and neatly dressed hones yeoman. The above named styles are all home-made productions, and unsurpassed for quality of material and elegance of finish, which material is enhanced in value by the modus operands of manipulation, in the hands of legitimate Hatters, scientifically skilled in the practical execution of his difficult art. With these facilities at his command, he is now prepared to produce a home-made Hat, at manufacturers' prices, of unsurpassed ele-gance, combining genius with science, nearness with style, beauty with quality, lightness with durability, elas-ticity with strength, and a perfect model mould fit, soft and agreeable to the head of the wearer. Gents' Silk Hats altered to the Fall style.
